

Defending Truth and Memory: The Path Towards Justice in Guatemala

UNIVERSITY MUSEUM

NEW MEXICO STATE UNIVERSITY

PHOTO EXHIBIT OPENING RECEPTION, 5:30-7:30PM

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1ST, 2018

INCLUDING AT 6:00PM

SPECIAL PRESENTATION BY FEATURED PHOTOGRAPHER:

Roderico Y. Díaz
of Guatemala

Photo: Doña Catarina Chavez, survivor of the Ixil genocide, Guatemala City, April 18, 2013

Roderico Y. Díaz: Documentary Photography | Independent Photojournalist & Videographer | rodediaz.com
His work focuses especially on the survivors of the Genocide in Guatemala and the struggle of the indigenous communities as they defend their identities, natural resources, and rights to land and territory.

This exhibition program and reception is sponsored by the University Museum, Gender and Sexuality Studies, International and Border Programs, the Criminal Justice Department, and the Honors College

University Museum – Kent Hall - corner of University Avenue and Solano Drive

Museum hours: Tuesday – Saturday, noon – 4pm

575.646.5161 | <http://univmuseum.nmsu.edu>